Remarks of the Recreation & Parks Commission

Alderman Witt acknowledged the Recreation Department for a job well done when we spoke at the Council Meeting. He stated it was very informative and received well by the Common Council. He would like to make it a yearly thing and Raelynn agrees with that. He also asked if we needed assistance with anything upcoming and offered his assistance.

Alderman Kleiner spoke about the Winterfest and how excellent it was. He mentioned the DJ and how he heard songs with lyrics about "shooting and grabbing glocks." Raelynn didn't hear any of that while she was there, but she will speak to the DJ about it.

Old Business

Update on Maple Hill Splash Pad

Raelynn stated John Bianchi met with TAM, and they are going to give us a ballpark price for the installation of the splashpad. Once we have that price, John Bianchi will present it to the Mayor, so we can get the funding to complete the project.

Lacrosse and Cycling Program
The request for these programs was presented at our last meeting by a guest.

Raelynn stated the request for a lacrosse clinic and cycling program from the high school students at last month's meeting was heard. We are looking for a lacrosse coach and making plans for a spring cycling program.

*Norris asked about the Heritage trail and Alderman Kleiner updated him

New Business

Annual Report

The final annual report was handed out.

Summer Sports Camp

Raelynn will speak to the Athletic Director David Coates and Superintendent Amy Creeden about summer. We are hoping we can get into one of the schools again.

Announcements
Nothing to report.
